

Name: _____ Grade: _____ Block: _____ Independent Reading Self-Assessment

Aspects	4. I rocked this rubric. 	3. I'm okay. 	2. I'll do better next time. 	1. I had an off day. 	Score and Rationale
Focus & Engagement	After a moment or two to adjust, I was able to settle into reading my book quickly and easily.	It took me a minute or two to settle into reading, but I got there eventually. If my mind strayed, I brought it back.	My mind wandered today. I struggled to focus, and sometimes, I daydreamed. I wasn't as productive as I wanted to be. I'll talk to the teacher about why.	It was just one of those days. I could barely make myself focus, and I didn't get far. I'll talk to the teacher about why.
Community	I contributed to the general environment of peace and focus.	I mostly contributed to the general environment of peace and focus. I had a few moments when the temptation to socialize won.	I struggled to let my peers focus on their reading. I kept socializing because the temptation was just too strong.	I distracted several people today and made the teacher a little bit nuts. I understand that I deserve better and so do the people around me.
Preparedness	I came to class with a book and a writing utensil. I went straight to a quiet spot and fell into my reading. BAM.	I may have forgotten my book or pen once, but I was mostly prepared. It didn't take me long to find a spot and read.	I'm worried that I may be developing a pattern of being unprepared. It happens often. I'll work with the teacher on strategies to help me out.	I'm rarely prepared for my independent reading, but there's a reason. I'll see the teacher and talk with her about how to fix this problem.
Annotating/ Notebook Work	My notes on the reading were thoughtful and reflect not only the teacher's directions and the class's content, but my own reflections on the text.	My notes were sometimes very thoughtful, but they became a bit surface and simple when I ran out of time or focus.	A couple of my notes were pretty good, but mostly, I just wanted to complete the assignment. I didn't have the focus and energy this time around. Or maybe I didn't understand the directions or content I'll talk to the teacher about it.	I either did not annotate, or I just underlined. It could be that I forgot the assignment, that I was unprepared, or that I felt overwhelmed or confused. I will talk to the teacher about it.
