

Relationships* Culminating Activity: Reflect and Connect

--Reflect on the experience of the Cycle of study Relationships. Think of the texts you read, listened to, discussed as well as your relationship bridge and the trait you decided was the most important to make a relationship strong.

--Share your trait only in the circle. Next,

--For the next 15 minutes, during the music- perform a gallery walk to view each bridge's design of its trait of strength. Pick up each bridge and read each strength trait name.

--Make a connection to 1 peer's relationship bridge trait. Add this trait under your bridge next to your trait. Use the + symbol. Add designs to your relationship bridge to reflect this strength.

--Share out why this was a strength you connected to in a circle briefly-

Differentiation: Students can say one word or explain in a few words.

AOP

How did you decide which trait you connected to?

Which designs did you add to your bridge to show your strength? Why

Which designs did you add to your bridge to show your peer's strength?